

Male/Female Counselors

Reports to: Unit Leader(s)

Job Summary:

The Summer Camp Counselors are responsible for the supervision and engagement of all campers in the Summer camp and provide an structured and positive environment for children to explore nature, play games and experience God in a extraordinary way. Counselors are tasked with truly making a difference in the life of our kids by loving and serving them at a very high capacity.

Role & Responsibilities:

- To supervise, guide, love, and care for a group of 5-8 campers (of age groups from 6-12 years old) during their entire week at FVCA.
- Counselors always create and mainain a positive and encouraging atmosphere throughout the Summer camp.
- To empower, serve, encourage, love and support all campers consistently.
- Follow all guidelines of FVCA, including the philosophy, goals, and objectives and also following all of FVCA's safety procedures at all times.
- Maintain the safety of your campers at all times, placing their welfare and interest above your own.
- Help campers become more aware of God in each aspect of their lives so they are capable of continued growth on their own after camp.
- Assist with program evaluation at the end of each session and at the end of the summer.

- Must be flexible! Be able to adapt quickly to change in program or event.
- Have fun! Balance organization and spontaneity to create lasting positive memories for campers.
- You will be asked to take on different tasks and/or assignments as needed.
- Assist in all activities in your area of the camp when requested.
- You will be asked other different tasks and or assignments as needed.

Requirements/Qualifications:

- Have a relationship with God and profess to be a born-again Christian.
- Must have regular Church attendance, and a pastor or leader reference.
- Must have a desire to minister to children and youth in a camp setting.
- Must be 18 years of age or older.
- Must be coachable and have willing heart to be challenged and receive guidance and direction on a daily basis.
- Must have organizational abilities and creativity.
- Must be a person who has high energy and an outgoing personality.
- Must be able to adapt and relate, cross-culturally and embrace diversity.
- Must have an acceptable level of spiritual, mental, social and emotional maturity.
- To be able to be flexible, function under pressure and commit to long hours while serving our youth and children.

To submit your application for this position, please click on the “apply now” button located at the top header of our job description’s page on our website. Attaching a resume and/or cover letter is required to be considered a serious candidate for this position.